

Reading Time

Read and find out who it is. Highlight the proper nouns and the dates. Try to understand what they refer to. Translate the expressions "She was born" and "She was crowned" into your native language.

Her family name is Windsor. She has four children. Her portrait is everywhere in England. She is very popular. She is not very tall, she has grey hair and blue eyes. She was born in London on April 21st, 1926. She was crowned on June 2nd, 1953. She lives at Buckingham Palace in London. Her name is _____

Read and find out who it is. Highlight the proper nouns and the dates. Try to understand what they refer to. Translate the expressions "He may become King" and "He has a son and a daughter" into your native language.

He is the Duke of Cambridge. One day he may become King of England. He was born on June 21st, 1982. He has fair hair and blue eyes. He has a son called George and a daughter called Charlotte. His name is _____

Question Time

Who is Elizabeth's husband? _____ How many sons does Elizabeth have? _____

What are their names? _____

Elizabeth has a daughter, what's her name? _____

How many grandchildren does Elizabeth have? _____ How many great-grandchildren does she have? _____

Who is William's mother? _____ She died in a car crash in 1997, do you know where? _____

Guessing Time

1. He is the future King, he married twice, and he has two sons: _____
2. William is her grandson: _____
3. She is William's wife: _____
4. His sister-in-law is called Kate: _____

Writing Time Now, it's your turn to create a guessing game for your classmates.

